

Oil-Dri Announces Price Increases on Industrial Clay and Synthetic Absorbents

November 1, 2021 8:25 PM EDT

CHICAGO, Nov. 01, 2021 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- Oil-Dri Corporation of America (NYSE: ODC) today announced that it will implement price increases of its industrial clay and synthetic absorbents, effective January 1, 2022. These price increases will range from 7% to 10%, depending on the product.

Daniel S. Jaffee, President and Chief Executive Officer, stated, "These pricing actions are necessary due to ongoing inflationary pressures from materials, packaging, natural gas, and other manufacturing costs. Maintaining the high quality and supply of our products to our customers remains a top priority for the Company."

Oil-Dri sales representatives will communicate additional details of the price increase to customers directly.
