OIL-DRI ANNOUNCES PRICE INCREASES

CHICAGO - April 15, 2005 -Oil-Dri Corporation of America (NYSE: ODC) announces price increases for all product groups effective immediately.

"We continue to see significant cost increases in fuel, packaging materials and freight, all of which are major inputs to our cost of goods," said Dan Jaffee, President and CEO.

Industry data indicates record increases of the company's critical external inputs, including natural gas, resin and diesel fuel for freight. Oil-Dri uses the PPI Index for Industrial Commodities (WPU03thru15) to govern the price adjustments with its long-term, contractual partners. Using February's data, this index is up 7.6%, year over year.

Price increases are scheduled for immediate implementation and will affect all business segments including, consumer products, fluids purification, agriculture, sports turf, animal health and nutrition and industrial businesses.
