Daniel S. Jaffee, President and Chief Executive Officer, stated, “Fiscal year 2026 has been especially meaningful as we celebrated our 85th anniversary and reported our strongest full-year sales and net income in history. In the first half of the year, we faced difficult comparisons against a robust prior period. Our team remained focused on growing the business in the second half and ultimately delivered solid results that surpassed last year’s performance. The fourth quarter closed out the year on a high note, with record breaking sales. While some areas of our business encountered headwinds, others delivered strong growth, demonstrating the benefit of our diverse product portfolio. Despite inflationary cost pressures, we maintained disciplined expense management and achieved historic levels of cash generation, while continuing to invest in our business and returning value to shareholders with two dividend increases. As we enter fiscal 2027, we remain focused on our strategic initiatives and supporting our businesses.”

Full Year Results

Consolidated net sales for fiscal year 2026 reached an all-time high of $493.8 million, a 2% increase over the prior year, primarily due to favorable product mix. The Retail & Wholesale (“R&W”) Products Group delivered record sales of $313.6 million, up 4% over last year, driven by a 47% increase in co-packaged cat litter, a 16% gain in crystal litter, and a 3% improvement in industrial and sports products. This growth was partially offset by a 1% decline in domestic clay litter sales, reflecting changes in private label distribution and the absence of certain non-recurring promotional activity from the prior year. The Business to Business (“B2B”) Products Group generated solid revenues of $180.2 million, a slight decrease of 1% from the prior year. Agricultural carriers achieved record sales, increasing 11% year-over-year, while revenues from fluids purification and animal health products declined 5% and 7%, respectively, due to lower demand compared with exceptionally strong prior-year results.

Annual consolidated gross profit was $137.5 million, down 4% from last year. Gross margins declined to 27.8% in fiscal year 2026 from 29.5% in fiscal year 2025. This was driven by a 4% increase in per ton domestic cost of goods sold, resulting from higher manufacturing and freight costs.

Selling, general and administrative (“SG&A”) expenses were $69.5 million in fiscal year 2026 compared to $74.9 million in the prior year. This 7% decline primarily reflects lower human resource costs attributable to corporate functions, a reduced bonus accrual, and decreased outside services expenses.

Fiscal year 2026’s consolidated operating income was $68.0 million and remained relatively flat compared to last year. Higher sales and lower SG&A expenses offset cost increases.

Total other income, net was $1.5 million in fiscal 2026 compared to total other expense, net of $2.0 million in fiscal 2025. The year-over-year change primarily reflects lower landfill modification costs in fiscal 2026 compared to an increase in the estimated obligation recognized in fiscal 2025, as well as higher interest income. The improvement was also driven by the positive outcome of a confidential legal settlement in the matter of Oil-Dri Corporation of America vs. Entera Animal Health, et al.

Income tax expense for fiscal year 2026 was $12.5 million compared to $12.2 million in the same period last year. This 3% increase resulted from higher pre-tax income.

Annual consolidated net income reached a record $57.0 million in fiscal 2026, or a 6% increase over the prior year.

Cash and cash equivalents grew to a historic high of $73.7 million at the end of fiscal year 2026, compared to $50.5 million at the end of fiscal year 2025, reflecting strong earnings and disciplined cash management. The Company generated this remarkable level of cash flow while simultaneously investing in its infrastructure and returning capital to shareholders, including $34.2 million in capital expenditures, $12.6 million in share repurchases, and $10.4 million in dividends paid during the year.

Fourth Quarter Results

Consolidated Performance

Consolidated net sales for the fourth quarter of fiscal 2026 reached $129.3 million, a 3% increase over the prior year period and the highest quarterly revenue in the Company's history. Topline growth was achieved in both the B2B and R&W Products Groups, mainly due to improved product mix.

Consolidated gross profit was $36.0 million in the fourth quarter of fiscal 2026, or a 3% gain over the prior year. Gross margins remained stable at 27.8% despite a 3% increase in per ton domestic cost of goods sold, primarily driven by higher freight expenses. Geopolitical pressure on diesel prices and reduced capacity in the trucking industry contributed to this increase.

SG&A expenses were $17.7 million during the fourth quarter of fiscal year 2026 compared to $19.2 million in the prior year. This 8% decline largely resulted from reduced outside service expenses and lower human resource costs attributable to corporate functions.

Consolidated income from operations was $18.2 million in the fourth quarter of fiscal year 2026, or 17% greater than the same period in fiscal year 2025. Improved sales combined with lower SG&A expenses drove this notable increase.

Total other expense, net was $160,000 for the three months ended July 31, 2026, compared to $140,000 in the same period last year.

During the fourth quarter of fiscal 2026, income tax expense rose to $3.7 million from $2.4 million in the prior year period, driven by higher pre-tax income and one-time tax benefits in fiscal year 2025.

Consolidated net income for the fourth quarter of fiscal year 2026 was $14.4 million versus $13.1 million last year, representing a 10% improvement. EBITDA rose by 13% to $24.1 million, demonstrating continued strength in the Company's underlying operating performance.

Product Group Review

The B2B Products Group delivered record fourth quarter sales of $50.1 million in fiscal year 2026, up 4% from the prior year, primarily reflecting favorable product mix and, to a lesser extent, increased volumes. The Company's animal health and agricultural businesses achieved revenue gains, while fluids purification product sales remained relatively flat. Revenues of animal health products reached an all-time high of $9.9 million during the fourth quarter of fiscal year 2026, an increase of 18% over the same period last year. This topline growth was attributable to higher domestic and international volumes, including additional demand from current customers and new end-user accounts gained during the year. Sales of agricultural products were $12.6 million, an increase of 6% compared to last year, driven by elevated demand and order timing. Fluids purification product revenues totaled $27.6 million in the fourth quarter of fiscal year 2026, representing the strongest quarterly performance in the last 12 months and remaining relatively consistent with last year's results.

SG&A costs within the B2B Products Group decreased by $220,000 in the fourth quarter of fiscal 2026, or 5%, compared to the same period last year. This change was primarily driven by lower bad debt expense and the absence of a foreign value-added tax ("VAT") assessment recorded in the fourth quarter of fiscal 2025.

Operating income for the B2B Products Group was $17.0 million in the fourth quarter of fiscal year 2026 compared to $15.0 million in the prior year period, reflecting an increase of 13%. Higher net sales and lower SG&A expenses offset elevated cost of goods sold.

The R&W Products Group reported sales of $79.2 million in the fourth quarter of fiscal year 2026, up 3% from the prior year, reflecting improved product mix. These gains were driven by higher revenues from cat litter, and to a lesser extent, from industrial and sports products. Co-packaged cat litter sales grew by 60% year-over-year, supported by an expanded product portfolio that now includes lightweight litter. Domestic cat litter revenues, excluding co-packaged products, totaled $55.9 million for the fourth quarter of fiscal year 2026, down 3% from the prior year period. While crystal cat litter sales increased, revenues of clay litter products softened when compared to the prior year. Domestic clay sales were negatively impacted by the timing and frequency of promotional activity at a large account, changes in retailer pricing strategies and distribution, and ongoing heightened trade spending by competitors. These headwinds were partially offset by the successful introduction of new lightweight products at a key customer and continued growth of Oil-Dri's EPA-approved Cat's Pride Antibacterial Clumping Litter. Domestic industrial and sports product sales increased 7% to $12.1 million, primarily due to pricing actions to offset higher costs, including increased transportation expenses. The Company's Canadian subsidiary reported record revenues for the fourth quarter of fiscal year 2026, up 3% from the prior year, reflecting growth across both cat litter and industrial products.

During the fourth quarter of fiscal 2026, SG&A expenses within the R&W Products Group decreased by $140,000 or 2%, from the prior year, primarily due to lower advertising spending.

Operating income for the R&W Products Group was $9.3 million in the fourth quarter of fiscal year 2026, or 5% less than the same period last year. The decline was mainly driven by significantly higher costs to transport cat litter products. These headwinds were partially offset by increased sales and lower SG&A expenses.

The Company will host its fourth quarter fiscal year 2026 earnings discussion virtually via a live webcast on Friday, October 9, 2026 at 10:00 a.m. Central Time. Participation details are available on the Company's website's Events page.

Forward-Looking Statements

Certain statements in this press release may constitute forward-looking statements within the meaning of the safe harbor provisions of the U.S. Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. Our forward-looking statements include, but are not limited to, statements regarding our or our management team's expectations, hopes, beliefs, intentions or strategies regarding the future. In addition, any statements that refer to projections, forecasts or other characterizations of future events or circumstances, including any underlying assumptions, are forward-looking statements. These forward-looking statements are based on management's current expectations, estimates, forecasts, assumptions and projections about future events, our future performance, the future of our business, our plans and strategies, projections, anticipated trends, the economy and other future developments and their potential effects on us. In addition, we, or others on our behalf, may make forward-looking statements in other press releases or written statements, or in our communications and discussions with investors and analysts in the normal course of business through meetings, webcasts, phone calls and conference calls. Forward-looking statements can be identified by words such as "expect," "outlook," "forecast," "would," "could," "should," "project," "intend," "plan," "continue," "believe," "seek," "estimate," "anticipate," "may," "assume," "potential," "strive," and variations of such words and similar references to future periods.

Such statements are subject to certain risks, uncertainties and assumptions that could cause actual results to differ materially from those anticipated, intended, expected, believed, estimated, projected, planned or otherwise expressed in any forward-looking statements, including, but not limited to, those described in our most recent Annual Report on Form 10-K and from time to time in our other filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission. Investors are cautioned not to place undue reliance on these forward-looking statements, which speak only as of the date of this press release. Except to the extent required by law, we do not have any intention or obligation to update publicly any forward-looking statements after the distribution of this press release, whether as a result of new information, future events, changes in assumptions, or otherwise.
